Public Open Space in Housing Estates in Yogyakarta:
From Private to Public........................................................................................................355
Maria Immaculata Ririk Winandari
Location Characteristics of Street Vendors in Urban Space
A Case Study: In the Trade Area of Jalan Kartini, Semarang........................................363
Retno Widjajanti

ENVIRONMENTAL AND GREEN CONTEXT

The Application of Participatory Planning Process
in Designing the Non-Green Spaces in Tidore Island.....................................................373
Maria Christina Endarwati
The Analysis of Comfort in Workplace............................................................................379
Nurul Jamala
Learning from Sustainable Urban Energy Development Study
in Surabaya City................................................................................................................389
Rully Pratiwi Setiawan